Lap Band Displayed

According to Sandy, since losing the weight people come up and tell her how good she looks. As Sandy sees it, positive comments about her weight drive her to lose the weight faster.

For individuals who may be considering the lap band procedure, Sandy wants them to realize how it works and how Lap Band Removed Weight for her. Sandy notes she is half way to her weight loss goal and hopes that her story will inspire others to go out and have the lap band procedure done for them.

Sandy says that for those who may be timid about undergoing lap band surgery; there is a great support system out there, with people who will encourage new patients along the way.

Sandy says she looks forward to losing additional pounds and keeping everyone updated on her weight loss progress.
